“The things you love to do provide a window into your soul, and we’ll show everyone who you really are.”

LET US CAPTURE WHO YOU ARE

Whether you're an athlete, an artist, a book lover or a music lover; whether you're a budding star, a lightning-fast runner, a cheerleader or a chess champion, we want to know your passions. The things you love to do provide a window into your soul, and we'll show everyone who you really are.

We'd love to photograph you doing what you do best and what you love most. Whether it's on the football field, out in nature, or at a neighborhood hangout that's special to you, we want to show you in your natural element, being yourself and doing what you're known for. Lets start a new project together based on your interests and passions. We know you're more than a stiff pose and a formal backdrop. Let's have some fun!

JUST BE YOU!

EXPRESS YOURSELF

You're gorgeous, inside and out. We'll capture your beauty in images you'll love.

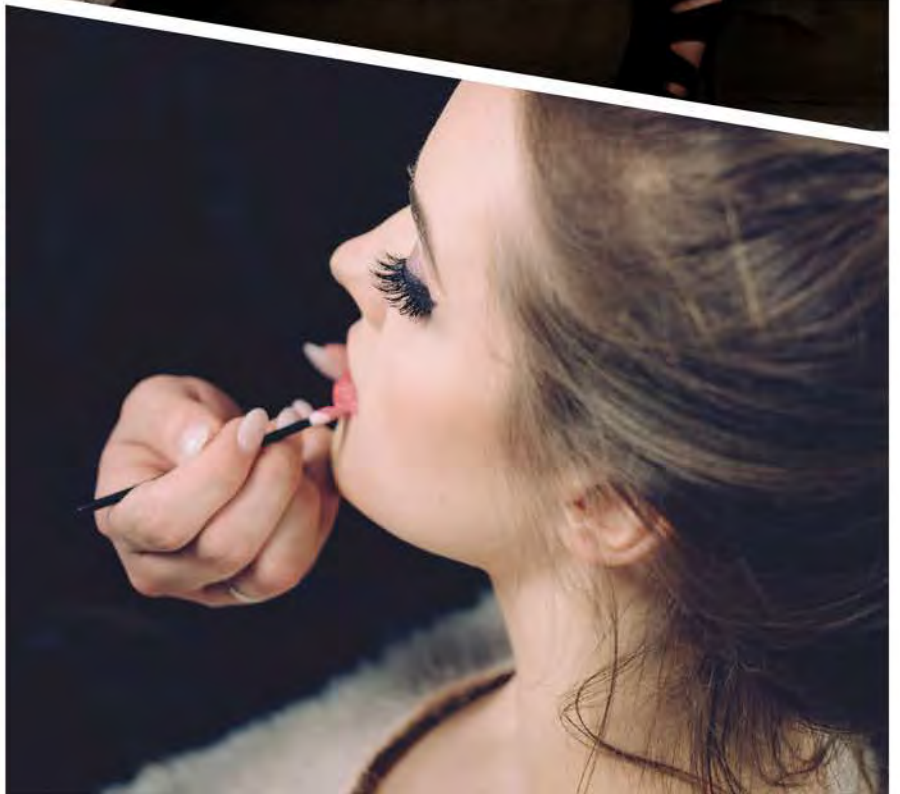

You are a unique individual. You have style, and you know how you want to express yourself. Of course you want to look beautiful in your portraits, but we know you're gorgeous on the inside, too. We know just how to bring that out and preserve it in images you'll love.

You're more than just one person – you're an athlete, a scholar, a rocker, a fun-loving friend. If showing your unique style is important to you allow time for multiple

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Where do portrait sessions take place?

Most clients choose to take advantage of our Mesa studio but we can shoot on location at your high school, sports field, or other location of your choosing. If you would like a special location or need ideas please do not hesitate to ask us.

When should I book my session?

Call us at least 2 weeks in advance to allow for availability, or book your session online at www.studio2257.com

What form of payment do you accept?

Cash, & Credit Cards. A 3% processing fee applies to all credit card transactions.

When is payment due?

Payment for your session is due at the time of booking and payment for print orders is due at time of your order.

How soon after our session will our images be available?

Typically 2-3 weeks after your shoot we will get together to select your favorite images. There is no pressure and no requirement to purchase.

What happens if it rains on the day of my outdoor session?

In the unfortunate event of rain during a scheduled outdoor session we will either utilize an indoor area or we will reschedule for another day.

How long does a typical session last?

Sessions typically last between 2-3 hours.

CANCELATION POLICY:

Session/retainer fees are non-refundable but may be applied to a future session if a 24 hour notice is given. If you or your child is feeling ill, please call to reschedule, regardless of the time frame. We are happy to reschedule your session due to illness.

We're always happy to answer any questions you might have. Email us or call directly. It is our goal to make your experience as fun and easy as possible.
